YUKON BIRDATHON

FEATURE BIRDER ~ JENNY TRAPNELL

Jenny is an enthusiastic birder who shares her joy of birds with the Yukon community. She is a long-time member and director of the Yukon Bird Club. Jenny organizes the Club's fantastic roster of field trips – featuring outings in almost every Yukon community. She is a participant on the annual Whitehorse Christmas Bird Count, as well as being the birding correspondent for the newspaper What's Up Yukon.

Her favourite local birding patch is the Millennium Trail along the Yukon River, and this year Jenny will be doing an Environmental Birdathon. We are very pleased to have Jenny as the Feature Birder for this year's 31st Annual Helmut Grünberg Yukon Birdathon!
